

Oregon Senate Passes SB 2

March 21, 2007

"Sound the battle cry! Our culture is attacking your children, and you're in for a fight", reads the headline in this afternoon's Focus On The Family email announcing tomorrow's nationwide radio broadcast. The brief email went on to say, "Popular culture is at war with your family, seeking to subvert your values and enslave your children to immorality."

Strong words? Hype? No. Nothing could more accurately describe today's VOTE in the Oregon State Senate to give homosexuals, lesbians, bisexuals, cross dressers and transsexuals special rights.

The VOTE was 21 in favor, 7 opposed, with two Senators absent. All democrats voted in favor of the bill along with three Republicans; Frank Morse representing Albany and Corvallis, David Nelson of Pendleton, and Jackie Winters of Salem. All other Republicans VOTED in opposition.

How is this an attack on children?

Simply stated, granting protection to immoral behavior serves to elevate that behavior to acceptance, particularly in the eyes of the young, whose sense of right and wrong is based on what they observe in the adult world. To them, it is tantamount to approval, and therefore furthers the moral free fall our children are now exposed to on a daily basis.

We are "in for a fight"

The battle for our children, for our right to make moral distinctions, for what is taught in our schools and preached from our pulpits ... is again at our doorstep. It will not go away until we replace those who approve such things (Cf. Romans 1) with those who do not.

In the meantime, we have one more battle to fight to prevent this bill from becoming law in Oregon: the Oregon House of representatives. The bill now goes to the House, controlled by democrats who are sold out to Planned Parenthood and the sodomite community, those Michael Medved today said "embraced the pathetic" with "indiscriminate compassion."

Stay tuned.

Prayerfully
